"INTRICATE MINDS: Understanding Classmates With Asperger Syndrome" (DVD video) Candid interviews with teenagers designed to promote positive interactions between classmates and reduce isolation, harassment and bullying. Using the challenges and strengths of students with Asperger Syndrome as examples, this video stresses the benefits of getting to know classmates who appear to be 'different' on the surface. For grades 7 through 12. DVD: 14 minutes. Includes optional English, Spanish and Japanese subtitles. $29.99.

"INTRICATE MINDS II: Understanding Elementary School Classmates With Asperger Syndrome" (DVD video) This video features interviews with elementary school students who have Asperger Syndrome explaining how it affects them -- and describing their challenges and strengths. The program also includes demonstrations that help viewers understand what it's like to have AS. Designed to promote positive interactions between classmates, INTRICATE MINDS II can help classmates accept kids who have trouble fitting in. For grades 3-6. DVD: 17 minutes, $29.99

"INTRICATE MINDS III: Understanding Elementary School Classmates Who Think Differently" (DVD video) This video features interviews with elementary school students who describe what it's like to have conditions that make them act differently from their peers. These interviews, along with demonstrations, promote positive interactions between classmates. The program concentrates on behaviors classmates might see that could be associated with conditions such as Asperger Syndrome, Higher Functioning Autism, Pervasive Developmental Delay, Semantic-Pragmatic Disorder and others. Kids who understand the reasons for "different" students' actions are much more likely to accept them socially and include them in activities. For grades 3-6. DVD: 18 minutes, updated in 2008 $29.99 (Note: This video is similar to Intricate Minds II in format and content)
