

DVD TITLE	AUDIENCE	REVIEWS/DESCRIPTION	INFO
Manners for the Real World: Basic Social Skills	Children, from age 9, through young adult  OPTIONAL SUBTITLES IN ENGLISH AND SPANISH	SCHOOL LIBRARY JOURNAL by Leigh Ann Rumsey, Penn Yan Academy, NY Grades 4-12 - An engaging narrator, wry humor, and an abundance of both positive and negative examples make this refreshingly quirky live-action film the ideal vehicle for conveying the usually dry subject matter. Its instructional objectives are clearly outlined and amusingly met through nine stand-alone segments, each followed by a captioned review...	Length: 44 minutes  SKU: CV- MRW  PRICE: $29.99
Intricate Minds: Understanding Classmates with Asperger Syndrome	Middle and high school students; college students Educators; Parents; Community groups  OPTIONAL SUBTITLES IN ENGLISH, SPANISH, AND JAPANESE	School Library Journal "Best Books 2005" edition by Anitra Gordon, formerly Lincoln High School Ypsilanti, MI. "Students with Asperger Syndrome (AS), the high end of the autism spectrum, talk about how they think and feel, and about their behavior classmates may find quirky, in this excellent film. The narrator, a college student with AS, explains that their brains are wired differently and they often have difficulty with social interactions because they don't recognize body language or other social cues, even though they may be highly intelligent...Ten articulate AS students talk poignantly about difficulties with ordinary interaction, as well as their strengths and interests..."	Length: 14 minutes  SKU: CV-IM  PRICE: $29.99
Intricate Minds II: Understanding Elementary School Classmates with Asperger Syndrome	Students in grades 3-6; Educators; Parents; Community groups	School Library Journal - Ann Crewdson, King County Library System, Issaquah, WA A series of interviews with youngsters (diagnosed with Asperger Syndrome) aged 8 to 12...The children give examples of how their behavior can be misunderstood and express their feelings about being socially ostracized...the emphasis is on looking beyond the disability for the student's strengths. This approach is effective, invites empathy, and discourages classmates from bullying by challenging stereotypes. A terrific tool for teaching tolerance.	Length: 17 minutes  SKU: CV-IM2  PRICE: $29.99
Intricate Minds III: Understanding Elementary School Classmates Who Think Differently	Students in grades 3-6; Educators; Parents; Community groups  OPTIONAL SUBTITLES IN ENGLISH AND SPANISH	School Library Journal - Leigh Ann Rumsey, Penn Yan Academy, NY Presented with compassion and humor, this live-action production offers a superb introduction to the challenges faced by children with neurobiological challenges...Children aged 8 to 12 speak out about their challenges as well as their own exceptional abilities... Teasing and bullying are briefly addressed, and positive alternatives are encouraged. This film will help youngsters understand the reasons why some classmates might act differently from their peers and foster acceptance.	Length: 18 minutes  SKU: CV-IM3  PRICE: $29.99

DVD TITLE	AUDIENCE	REVIEWS/DESCRIPTION	INFO
Understanding Brothers and Sisters on the Autism Spectrum	Siblings from age 4 through adult; Parents and families Educators; Community groups	Library Journal, by Corey Seeman, Kresge Business Administration Lib., Univ. of Michigan, Ann Arbor This program is a great resource for families who have children with an autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and siblings who are neuro-typical (NT). The DVD is divided into 4 programs, 3 geared toward children of various ages and 1 for parents. The filmmakers brilliantly use interviews with NT siblings and parents to document the issues that exist among family members... programs geared toward children provide excellent modeling behavior... interviewees show maturity beyond their years and provide pointers and coping mechanisms that will help viewers better understand their siblings...strongly recommended for all libraries... School Library Journal, by Mary Grace Flaherty ...The interviews are interspersed with narrative segments that offer encouragement and insights. The siblings interviewed are articulate and candid about the challenges and joys of living with their autistic siblings. The DVD offers practical advice and support and stresses positive reinforcement and patience as effective tools....	Length: 94 minutes SKU: CV- UBSAU PRICE: $39.99
Understanding Brothers and Sisters with Asperger Syndrome	Siblings from age 4 through adult; Parents and families Educators; Community groups	SCHOOL LIBRARY JOURNAL-Kathleen Kelly MacMillan Each segment of this innovative program addresses a different age audience, but they all focus on the same issue: the challenges of having a sibling with Asperger Syndrome and the techniques that young people can use to get along better...This DVD is truly a family affair—3 segments are hosted by Jessie Coulter, the adult sibling of a brother with Asperger Syndrome, and the 4th part is hosted by producer Dan Coulter, Jessie's father...The Coulters have created a terrific resource for family members of all ages.	Length: 109 minutes SKU: CV- UBSAS PRICE: $39.99
Asperger Syndrome: Success in the Mainstream Classroom	Educators in primary and secondary schools; Parents; Community groups; College level students in education major	Jackie Igafo-Te'o , from Bridges4kids.org This video is a well-rounded, informative session on the topics of Education and Asperger Syndrome. I found the information to be exceptionally presented and in an easy-to-follow format. The information provided is enlightening. This video is a definite "must see" for anyone, working or living with someone diagnosed with Asperger Syndrome, who is interested in the educational, social and emotional aspects of the disorder.	Length: 44 minutes SKU: CV-SMC PRICE: $39.99
Asperger Syndrome for Dads: Becoming an Even Better Father to Your Child with Asperger Syndrome	Parents and families Educators; Community groups	Press Barnhill, father of an adult son with AS and contributor to the book: "Right Address ... Wrong Planet: Children with Asperger Syndrome Becoming Adults" This video is a wonderful depiction of many of the key issues that a dad faces as he travels through fatherhood with a child with AS... The pictures and video clips made by the father throughout the school years are very dramatic and helpful. Overall this is a well done video by a father of a son with AS and the son himself is featured in many parts of the video. This adds credibility to the video and will help fathers to relate to the ideas and suggestions presented.	Length: 26 minutes SKU: CV-DAD PRICE: $29.99

DVD TITLE	AUDIENCE	REVIEWS/DESCRIPTION	INFO
Asperger Syndrome At Work	Students and adults with Asperger Syndrome and similar conditions; Employers; Job Coaches; Educators; Parents; Community groups	Library Journal - Corey Seeman, Kresge Business Administration Lib., Univ. of Michigan, Ann Arbor Coulter Video has been very active in producing DVDs to support families and individuals with autism and Asperger syndrome (AS). The Coulters have a son with Asperger's, and Dan was recently diagnosed. Coulter introduces us to six adults with AS who are working in diverse occupations, including a veterinarian's assistant and a library page. Both the employees with AS and their supervisors comment on workplace skills, living accommodations, interpersonal relations, and the job search interview. Most interesting are the candid discussions about coping mechanisms people with AS use in order to be successful in the workplace. This excellent film would make a valuable reference tool with its well-designed menu that allows viewers to jump to specific sections. Strongly recommended for all public and business libraries; may be used successfully by both employees and employers.	Length: 88 minutes  SKU: CV-WRK  PRICE: $39.99
Asperger Syndrome: Transition to College and Work	Students with Asperger Syndrome and similar conditions in secondary schools; Educators; Parents; Community groups	Program Description: This DVD features two programs for high school students who have Asperger Syndrome and similar conditions. Program 1: includes steps students need to take to prepare for college. Program 2: describes how to prepare to enter the workplace from high school or after college. The programs include interview with: Peter Gerhardt, Ed.D., Psychologist and job coach; Ann Binder The director of special needs services at Delaware County Community College's Career and Counseling Center in Media, Pa.; Mary Beth Berry The transition Coordinator, North Hunterdon High School in Annandale, N.J.	Length: 57 minutes  SKU: CV-TCW  PRICE: $39.99

EDUCATIONAL VIDEOS PRODUCED BY COULTER VIDEO, INC.

Free online previews of each video can be viewed on our website along with reviews by professionals and customers and detailed description of the video content. Our website also includes an archive of free articles for parents and educators which can be used in newsletters or informational awareness programs.

ORDERING INFORMATION: Orders can be placed online using the shopping cart on our website www.coultervideo.com or by purchase order (for payment on a net-30 basis or by credit card).

Purchase orders can be sent via:

EMAIL: orders@coultervideo.com

FAX: 336-608-4224

MAIL: COULTER VIDEO, 1428 PINECROFT DRIVE, WINSTON-SALEM, NC 27104

SALES TAX: (NC only) We collect sales tax on orders shipped to locations in North Carolina. Please let us know if your organization is tax-exempt.

W9 FORM: We can send a W-9 form to your staff upon request.

SHIPPING: We routinely ship via US Postal Service and UPS. An order quantity of 1-10 DVDs can be mailed for $7. If you need special shipping or overnight delivery, please call us to inquire about availability.

QUESTIONS? Please give us a call if you have any questions about video content or order information. TELEPHONE: 336 608 4224